City of Sugar Hill

Summer Fun

School's out and the mercury is rising. It must be summer time! Sugar Hill has plenty of opportunities to beat the heat and enjoy the sweet city.

The Sugar Hill Splash Park is open daily from 10 a.m.–8 p.m. Splash Nights are on June 28th and July 26th from 6–9 p.m. and feature live entertainment, food trucks, and activities for the kids.

The Eagle Theatre continues $2 Tuesdays featuring big screen blockbusters at a budget-friendly price. Themes over the summer include Marvel and Disney. Shows are every Tuesday at noon and 7 p.m.

New restaurants at the E Center offer plenty of options for summer cuisine. Rushing Trading Company serves up gourmet coffee as well as breakfast, lunch, dinner, and creative cocktails. Central City Tavern offers an upscale sports bar feel anchored by a diverse lunch and dinner menu. Crazy Dough's Pizza serves up artisan pizza for lunch and dinner by the slice or by the pie and the long-awaited Indio Brewing is expected to open its doors and taps this June. The SHINE District offers adults the opportunity take to-go beverages from these local restaurants to events and activities in downtown Sugar Hill.

Sparks in the Park will be held on July 3rd at E.E. Robinson Park. The free event will feature live music, entertainment, food trucks, frozen treats and fireworks. More information about this and all other events can be found online at www.cityofsugarhill.com and on our social media.

Veterans Memorial Ground Breaking Ceremony

Pictured (not in order) Congressman Rob Woodall, State Senator Renee Unterman, State Representative Gregg Kennard, Commissioner Jace Brooks, Mayor Steve Edwards, City Council Members: Taylor Anderson, Marc Cohen, Susie Walker, Brandon Hembree, and Curtis Northrup, City Manager Paul Radford, Pastor Chuck Allen, Veterans: James Cox, James Stanley, Clint Christiansen

The City of Sugar Hill celebrated the 75th anniversary of D-Day with a ground breaking ceremony for the new Veterans Memorial. Mayor Edwards, city council members, county officials, state and federal elected leaders, American Legion members, Suwanee Creek Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution members, city staff, residents and local veterans were in attendance for the ceremony.

The monument honors the service and sacrifice of members of all six U.S. military branches and features a reflecting pool, eternal flame, and space for the community to gather and remember.

Rocket Launch Event – Moon Landing Anniversary

To celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Apollo 11 moon mission launch, the U.S. Space & Rocket Center plans to set a new Guinness World Record by simultaneously launching 5,000 Estes rockets on July 16th. Communities and organizations around the world are also invited to join in the celebrations. Sugar Hill will host community rocket launch event planned for July 16th followed by a matinee showing of the new “Apollo 11” film in the Eagle at 3 PM. You can build your own rocket ahead of time following NASA’s instructions at:

Calendar Girls

The Players Guild at Sugar Hill will present Calendar Girls at the Eagle Theatre weekends August 16th through 25th. The play tells the story of Annie, who in the wake of her husband's death, resolves to raise money for the local hospital. She persuades fellow Women's Institute members to pose nude for a calendar to raise the money. Calendar Girls is based on the true story of 11 women who proposed to raise $500 for the Leukemia Research Fund and ended up raising $3 million.

In the spirit of the play, The Sugar Hill Players Guild will bare all (or just enough) in a tasteful calendar to raise money for the American Cancer Society. All proceeds from the production will also be donated.

Calendars will be available for purchase at all productions of the show for $10. Tickets are on sale now at www.eagleatsugarhill.com and proceeds will also be donated to the American Cancer Society. For more information about the show or calendar, email pgatsh@yahoo.com.
