ARTS COMMISSION

The Sugar Hill Arts Commission is a group of artists and art lovers set on a mission to encourage, promote, and expand public interest in the arts. Carefully selected by the city's Arts Commission, art installations are placed throughout the downtown area. The purpose of the group is to enhance the quality of life while creating a colorful and unique community. Sugar Hill is where individuals can come together for shared experiences and to spend time with family, friends, and neighbors. Interested in becoming a member of the Sugar Hill Arts Commission? Meetings are the second Tuesday of each month at 6 p.m. at the Art Gallery on West Broad St.

MURALS

In 2016, the Arts Commission and the public voted on and selected two local artists to complete one of the largest public pieces ever created in Sugar Hill, two beautiful murals both located at the Suite Spot, formerly City Hall. On one side of the building, the mural is an ode to Sugar Hill, representing the rich history of the city with images like a wagon with a missing wheel, the oldest home in Sugar Hill, and our secret claim to fame - gold mining. And, on the opposite side of the building is the Sweet Life mural because just as the artwork says, being in Sugar Hill really is living the sweet life.

ART GALLERY

Dive further into the world of artistry and immerse yourself in classic and contemporary art at Sugar Hill's Art Gallery. The bright and airy space casts a spotlight on an eclectic mix of changeable featured works and traveling exhibitions from local and non-local artists. Located at 5010 West Broad St. the Sugar Hill Art Gallery and the Sugar Hill History Museum are both free and open to the public.

SUGAR RUSH ARTS FESTIVAL

A collaboration between Lanier and North Gwinnett High Schools and the Arts Commission where students created the paintings in a live environment during Sugar Rush. Paintings are displayed in the E Center.

STACKED HOUSE SCULPTURE

Commissioned by Cadence Apartments, created by Judith Hoffman.

LANIER HIGH SCHOOL ART GALLERY

This gallery showcases several students' artwork varying in mediums and techniques. Located in the E Center.

ART-O-MAT

A rehabilitated cigarette machine that sells original artwork from artists across the country for only $5. This is displayed in the E Center.

WHAT'S GOING ON IN SUGAR HILL?

Ice Rink

Come skate on a real ice outdoor rink during the winter months in Downtown Sugar Hill for endless frosty fun. Located behind City Hall, on Dawn P. Gober Community Plaza, the rink is the perfect spot for date night, family fun, or a solo day out on the town. Did we mention the rink is the size of Rockefeller Center's in New York City? The Ice Rink offers complimentary use of skate trainers and helmets for kids. The skating experience wouldn't be complete without music, disco balls, and stage lighting so lace up your skates this winter and glide to the Ice Rink at Sugar Hill.

For tickets and rink schedule visit, www.haidrink.com.

Holiday Celebration

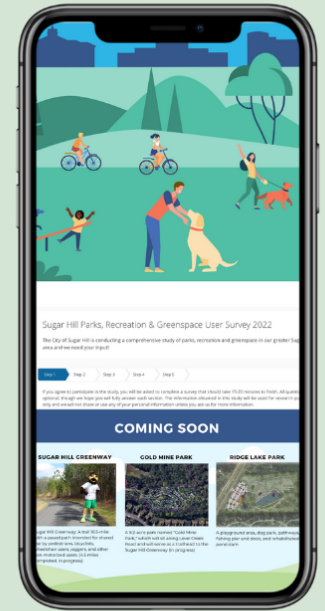

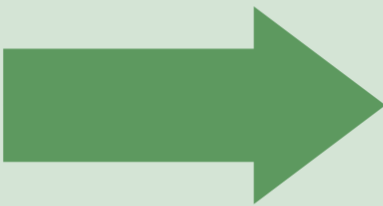

Don't miss this magical annual holiday gathering under the stars at the Dawn P. Gober Community Plaza and The Bowl on December 3, from 5-9 p.m. Get free photos with Santa, shop the holiday market, and enjoy performances from the Broad St. Concert Band, Players Guild, and On The Stage Children's Theatre! We look forward to seeing you and playing in the "snow" on this special evening in Sugar Hill.

Parks and Recreation Survey

The City of Sugar Hill is conducting a comprehensive study of parks, recreation, and greenspace in our greater Sugar Hill area. Please know that we've included questions about amenities outside of the city limits. If you agree to participate in the study, you will be asked to complete a survey that should take 15-20 minutes to finish.

Scan the QR Code or visit the city's website to complete the survey.
